Amish Village Tour

Step back in time as you experience the culture and faith of the Amish. Enjoy a relaxing and comfortable trip down to Montgomery, Indiana. A place where cars caution to horse-drawn buggies, a land of one-room school houses, hand-sewn quilts, quaint shops, and delicious homemade treats.

Being greeted by traditional hospitality reminiscent of the early German settlers is just the beginning. Highways and back roads in Montgomery County lead to a world alive with evidence of a simpler way of life. Be prepared to shift gears and put on the brakes. Your tour begins with partaking in some of the Amish's best homemade recipes as you enjoy a lunch buffet at the Restaurant and Village Inn. After lunch, take a trip through the peaceful countryside while an expert, local guide explains the beliefs and traditions of the Amish people.

Tour stops include Amish homes, variety stores, Wagler's Quilt shop, farms, small business, and the local school house. Take a piece of your experience back with you by purchasing items at the local shop. Available souvenirs include meats, cheeses, quilts, woodworking, and much more!
