

Conference attendees are invited to join the Forest Products Society International Convention attendees for a night on the town at the Society's annual Paul Bunyan Party. This event will be held Tuesday June 24, 2008, at Kemoll's Top of the Met restaurant. One of the most renowned restaurants in St. Louis, the Top of the Met is located on the top floor of the Metropolitan Building, and offers beautiful views of both the city and the Arch.

The event will include a plated dinner, hosted bar, and entertainment throughout the evening. The restaurant is located less than two miles from the Hyatt Regency Union Station. Motorcoach transportation will be provided both from the Hyatt to the restaurant...and from the restaurant back to the Hyatt. Cost is $75.00 per person.
