

My name is Jonathan Hicks and I'm a senior Chemical Engineering student at the University of Maine. I am currently the President of the UMaine TAPPI-PIMA chapter. I have been a member all four years of college with positions of First Year Rep and Vice-President. I did a two term process co-op in the pulp and paper industry and have now accepted a full time job as a service representative for a chemical supplier in the pulp and paper industry.